A SALVATION PLEDGE

BY DAVID ANGUS, RICHMOND CHURCH,
TOMES.—We'll march through the world.
We will not buy, we will not make,
We will not sell, we will not take,
Wine, cider, rum, beer, or whisky gin,
It leads mankind to sin.

CHORUS.—
Then we'll march, etc.

I will not smoke the smoker's pipe,
Nor use any thing that calls cigarette,
Or smoke my pipe to puff, or snuff,
Or use that dirty stuff.

I will not chew what pigs won't eat,
That horrid stuff that blacks men's teeth,
I will not drink what devils may,
Hooch & hooch & hooch & hooch.

Look out for the three special "Cry" issued, respectively, on Feb. 26th, March 7th, and March 14th.

MY JESUS AND I

BY RANDMANS J. STEPHENSON, INDORELL:
TUNE.—Hymn to Thee.

While clinging to Jesus with unfolding hands, I cling to Jesus.

How sweetly I dwell in my heavenly home;
We cling to each other, my Jesus and I.

CHORUS.—

Clinging to Thee,
Singing to Thee,
Dear Jesus, my Saviour
I am clinging to Thee.

The storm may be fearful and trials
so now in the heavens to comfort or cheer; Dark clouds of temptation may眷 over the earth, but we have a God who loves us;
We'll cling to each other, my Jesus and I.

CHORUS.—

Chorus—

Three special "War Cry" issued, respectively, on

HE'S A WONDERFUL FRIEND

BY GARY, JOHN DODGE.

TUNE.—I am so glad that Jesus loves me.

When I was a child and doomed to die,
I heard of a Saviour who for me did care,
He had a right to me by my err and sin,
He had to give His life, this wonderful friend.

Wondrous Friend, Companion and Guide Jesus loves me, He doth me like,
When tempted and tried to His love,
Jesus' love is mine.

With bothies together, never more apart,
For He has com in and abides in my heart,
He carries my burdens and fills me with joy.

But, praise the Lord, I now am saved,
I'm born again for God's church,
A new creature, a new man, a new life,
And thy love took once more.

What wrought this change? you well may ask,
What wrought this change, you say?
I tell you, it was Jesus Christ, the Saviour,
"Twas Ood through the E.

I praise my God for what He has done,
For I am many more;
I can see from the front and the hall,
And I'll prance in the moon,

Don't Miss It for "All the World."

We do not apologize for again bringing before the notice of our readers the fact that "All the World" will appear in its enlarged form in January, because we feel that its merits fairly demand a warm reception, and that it will be a great service to civilization. Further, this will secure us, here no room for doubt, if every effort is made to get it published, and zealously pushed along with our own people, and especially amongst our own officers, who are the most important factor in this matter. In which January will see launched, staying during the past week, with all the energy of the General Assembly of our own towns, we asked whether they ever saw "All the World." "Well," was the reply, "we have seen it, but we don't want to let it go now!" Sad war for a boomer, thereof! We do hope our comrades will see that the "Cry" is a valuable addition to what can help, extremely rare. Especially do we plead for a thorough "boom" on behalf of the "Cry," and we trust that our virtues are only made widely known, charm all old readers, and secure many new ones. Let us all work hard and sympathize, and help to spread "Our Kingdom"—England Crys.

THE WAR IN THE E. D. BRIGADE

This year the attention throughout the East Ontario and Quebec Brigades, The battalions in every very cheering reports from the various Battalions Divisions, and nothing but success.

THE TERRIBLE WINTER WEATHER this time of the year, the officers and soldiers' hearts are filled with love and kept on the alert, and the men are in full spirits, the dyes around them. Souls are crying for mercy, and God is satisfying his people.

The exertion of the Brigadier and his A.D.C. at Kingston, were seasons of trial and tribulation, but the winter nights will long be remembered.

SIXTY DAY'S THEMSELVES FULLY up God for a life concerned to God and His Word for the coming New Year. And after the trials and tribulations, the right out for Salvation. The crowds were good. The band played beautifully. The soldiers believe in marching, and altogether spiritual health of the corps is good. The coming year, the officers and soldiers will long be remembered.

YOU MUST BEWARE

Specialto Toronto Officers and Friends.

A girl by the name of Shannaghay has just come to town to the home of Army and Field officers living in the city. She has succeeded in taking quite a number of officers under her spell. Most of them have naturally helped her. She has pitied the following officers with such sympathy, that Capt. H. G. Dept. Grifiths and Head. Ensign Ross, Capt. F. G. Parker, Locks and others. She writes them letters, and says she is about thy father, suffering from ulcers in the mouth, etc., etc. Let every Salvation Army Officer, and Field Officer, be a disengaged friend.

BY H. NEWTON.

TUNE.—I'm satisfied with Jesus here.

I know that Jesus died to save,

And that He loves you still;

It's for you the path He laid,

And that He suffered, bled and died,

That now I do go well.

Oh, Jesus, I know He'll do it,

For Jesus loves you still.

CHORUS.—

He'll pardon all your sin,

And sweep the past away,

He'll wash you clean,

While by His side you stay.

If you'll let Him in.

FRIENDS, once I was a scoffer, bad,

An infidel was I.

I mocked a Christian on high, God,

Reproached him, too, and said,

"Aye, thy God is weak."

THE COMMISSIONER'S ONTARIO S. R. TOUR.

BY MAJOR LEIGHTON.
Great Ruthlessness—An tremendous growth—Eviction—Steener—Thrilling Testimony of the Ex-Jail
Bled.

Arrived at the barracks, a short while ago service was held and the building was almost full.

The Commissioner, the officers, soldiers and friends for the welcome given him and Major Lee, and Major Leighton had a great time. The meeting was held in the mess hall, which was closed and we went into various billets and had seats there. The officers' hall for all officers' council, a meeting for soldiers and friends being held in the barracks.

Both meetings were richly blessed to the souls of all present, and we are sure that those who did not benefit by them will benefit by them.

Another adjournment in order to release the men, and at 7:15 p.m. we had a meeting.

Triumphant Wedding March

round the town.
Although 25 cents was charged for admission to the barracks, the officers and the minister had declared that "man and wife together" a great big volley would be given to the officers' wives, so we were given a great big volley.

A hearty cheer brought us to the station, where the station was reached, very abundant evidence of the welcome
we had received.

At 8:30 p.m. the streets were filled with soldiers from the train, and a large concourse had gathered immediately in front of the depot.

Several buggies, wagons, etc., were seen on and off, and the horses were given over to the special benefits of the Brigade.
As the Commissioner and Mrs. Adams, Major Leighton and his wife, Major Lee and Major Phillips, and friends, etc., were seen in the station, the people were in a mania. The village was in full.

At 9 p.m. the meeting was opened.

Major Leighton spoke for the crowd, and the Commissioner's address on Social Reform was excellent. Every point was well made, and the audience was greatly impressed.

And figures presented were plentifully, and everybody present was delighted with what the work we are doing is really of God.

Major Leighton gave some heart-stirring words, and the audience responded.

During the course of the evening the Rescue Home was opened.

THE CROWD IN THE CHATHAM MARKET SQUARE style, although it must be admitted, the bride carried the palm in the respect which she deserved.

At 3 p.m. This is the fourth time I have been to Chatham, but it was certainly far the Biggest March on Record

as far as I have seen at Chatham. It did not make much noise, the music and the band were nearly as numerous as the people gathered round.

At 4 p.m. we came to the market square after several changes and delays in the Commissioner's address on Social

Reform was excellent. Every point was well made, and the audience was greatly impressed.
